Hundreds of job to go at food company

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

ALMOST 500 workers face redundancy after a food company announced it will close the abattoir and butchery at its Haverhill pork processing plant.

Vion Food Group, which took over the Grampian Country Food Group last June, has announced that as many as 470 out of the 800 employees at the Little Wratting site face the axe.

Vion said it was restructuring its abattoir and sliced cooked meats operations at its plants in Haverhill and Malton, Yorkshire to create "centres of excellence" that will "optimise production efficiencies".

The company is proposing to close its abattoir, butchery, and some elements of its retail operations in Haverhill and transfer these to Malton.

Vion proposes to transfer all cooked meats operations currently based at its Malton site to Haverhill. It said this will allow the Haverhill business to focus on cooked meats production and processing.

As a consequence of the proposed changes, there is the possibility of redundancies at both plants.

Alasdair Cox, director of corporate affairs, said: "Due to increasingly competitive pressures from the marketplace, we must continually look to optimising our production facilities to ensure sound foundations for the development of our UK business.

"In creating dedicated facilities at Malton and Haverhill, we will be investing in both plants to build the business.

"We regret the need for these changes and have informed our employees and their union representatives of our commitment to consult with them.

"The commitment from the teams at Haverhill and Malton has never been in question."

Cllr Les Ager, Haverhill mayor, said: "For that many people to lose their jobs is terrible. It is particularly bad news for the economy of the area."

Sarah Howard, chairman of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, said: "I can only confirm it is disappointing news which is going to have a considerable impact on the people affected and their families.

"Most people in the area will know someone who works or has worked at Vion – historically it has been a major employer in the town.

"We hope our workforce continues to benefit from the creation of new jobs as the Haverhill area continues to attract companies to our town."

The announcement comes just days after Dalehead Foods, part of the Tulip group, said 90 jobs could go when it closes the abattoir at its pork processing plant in Linton, which employs 385 staff.

Sign up to classes and boost appeal

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE organisers of a baby sign and play class are the latest to back our St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Jo Brown, who runs the Hullabaloo Kids group, will donate the first week's class fee of any new members to the Weekly News hospice appeal.

The appeal has a target of £40,000 to help patients in the Haverhill area receive services in their own homes, rather than travelling to the hospice itself in Bury St Edmunds.

The Hullabaloo group meets once a week at the Salvation Army premises in Chauntry Road, Haverhill, and provides a wide range of activity classes for pre-school children.

Children under the age of two are taught to communicate with a mixture of British Sign Language and Makaton, a language in which users are first encouraged to communicate using signs until these are gradually replaced with words once a link is made between the sign and the word.

Jo said: "Children can show what they want with their hands before they can talk."

"We use British Sign Language and Makaton. We teach them through nursery rhymes, like The ■ LANGUAGE LESSONS ... above and below right, Jo Brown leads mums and babies at the Hullabaloo class. Below left, mum Jill Parr and baby Maia, five months.

Wheels on the Bus. We also do multi-sensory play."

The group meets from 1.30pm to 2.30pm on Tuesday and the fee is £3.50. Jo said she will donate the fee from new mums joining the group and match it with £3.50 herself until the end of February.

She said: "I've been following the campaign in the paper. I thought it would be nice to get the younger ones involved."

Anyone who is interested in joining the group can call Jo on 07525 746019.

Thanks to the generosity of readers, businesses and other local organisations and fundraisers, the total now exceeds £30,000. But we still need help to raise the final £10,000 and achieve our goal.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of St Nicholas Hospice Care. It has running costs of £4.8 million a year but less than a quarter of that is funded from Government sources.

Anyone interested in supporting the cause, or anyone who is organising an appeal fundraising event and wants us to publicise it for them can call (01284) 747613.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause. A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Meet your local police

THE Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) will hold a number of consultations and surgeries in the coming week.

There will be a street briefing on Saturday at East Town Park from 10am until noon. The team will then hold a surgery on Monday at the Clements resource centre from 9.30am.

On Tuesday they will be at the Citizens Advice Bureau Polish drop-in session at the Haverhill council offices from 10.30am to 12.30pm and 4pm to 6pm.

The Rural South SNT mobile police station will be at Church Lane in Barnadiston from 10.30am to 11.30am tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

Break-in damage

VANDALS caused extensive damage when they broke into a house in Haverhill. Offenders forced a window of the property in Pavillion Court between 7.50am and 3.20pm on Monday. They caused extensive damage to walls and furniture but nothing was stolen.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Det Con Paul Gant at Haverhill CID on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

History lessons

HISTORY lecturer Nick Sign will be speaking about education in East Suffolk between 1900 and 1939 at the January meeting of Haverhill and District Local History Group. This is the third in a series of talks Nick is giving the group about the history of education in Suffolk, starting with its roots in the 17th Century. It will be held at 7.30pm next Wednesday in the Haverhill Arts Centre studio. Admission is free to members and £2 for visitors.

Threat to jobs at firm

Vion said it is working with the East of England Development Agency (EEDA) to establish what support and assistance can be provided to safeguard jobs and "grow the business" in the future.

Richard Ellis, EEDA chairman, said: "The pig industry is an important part of the East of England economy with many jobs reliant on the Haverhill plant as part of the supply chain.

"EEDA will be working with Suffolk County Council and St Edmundsbury Borough Council to maintain the processing plant in Haverhill and safeguard the majority of jobs dependant on it."

A spokesman for the union Unite said its priority is to resist compulsory redundancies and safeguard jobs.

He said: "Unite is seeking urgent talks with the Vion group."

Vion has an annual turnover of more than 9.5 billion euros and employs 35,000 people worldwide.

■ KICK OFF ... pupils from Chalkstone Middle School have been selected to play in a five-a-side football tournament at the David Beckham Academy.

Picture: Keith Jones 531653.

High hopes for local football champions

YOUNG footballers from Haverhill are hoping to bend it like Beckham when they represent their county in a major tournament. The Chalkstone Middle School under-12 girls and the under-12 boys five-a-side teams emerged triumphant from a local district football tournament. The prize for their success is to represent Suffolk in the South East of England round of the national tournament. It will be held at the David Beckham Academy in Greenwich, London, tomorrow and Monday. The teams will be hoping to emulate the success of the school's Year 8 boys who are proving to be the kingpins of Suffolk, after winning the county championships held in Ipswich for the second year running. They won the final 4-3 on penalties.

Traders call for stalls to draw in shoppers

TRADERS in Haverhill's Queen Street have asked for a market to be held there to draw in customers to boost their businesses.

They made their request when officials from St Edmundsbury Borough Council met them on Tuesday to provide an update on progress on the street's enhancement scheme which will cost almost £500,000.

Chris Rand, principal planning officer, outlined plans which include new heritage-style lighting, signs, information boards and the creation of a meeting place as part of the makeover.

Businesses felt a market would benefit the vitality of the street and said they had noticed an increase in trade when the French market has visited.

Mr F M Nafi, who owns the Star Express restaurant, said:

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"Queen Street has always been neglected. There is nothing to draw people in. A market would draw people in."

Council officers said they would consider the request and talk to market stall traders who currently operate in the town on Fridays and Saturdays.

Mr Nafi said the improvement works could lead to a loss in trade for their duration.

He said: "I've been in Queen Street for 25 years. I've seen it changed before and it took quite a few months and our trade was down 25 to 30 per cent. We will lose trade."

Mr Rand said the final designs were still being completed and he expected work to start after Easter and to be completed before the new Tesco store opens in the autumn.

Traders also asked if the one-way traffic flow could be reversed. Mr Rand said this was an issue for the county council, as the highways authority, but the scheme would not prejudice a change in the future.

He reported back on the results of a public consultation exercise on the Queen Street proposal that ended last October.

The public gave their views on increased pedestrian priority, the erection of gates to restrict traffic at Swan Lane and Lower Downs Slade and preferences for the inclusion of public art in the scheme.

Mr Rand said: "We had a very successful consultation and had 414 responses.

"In terms of pedestrian priority, there is a feeling in favour of improving it. And the overwhelming response was we need gates at both ends of Queen Street."

■ DISRUPTION ... improvement works could lead to loss of trade. Picture: 531506

He said there was support for public art to be included in the scheme, adding: "It should be based on Haverhill and of Haverhill."

Thieves target tipper truck

A SPARE wheel was stolen from the back of a tipper truck in a Haverhill car park.

The incident happened in Strasbourg Square at around 5.20pm on Friday. Police want to speak to a white man in his early 30s about the incident.

He is described as between 5ft 8ins and 5ft 10ins tall, of medium build with dark curly hair.

He left the area in a dark coloured Vauxhall Vectra. Anyone with information should call Pc Cheryl Claydon at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

In a separate incident both number plates were stolen from a black BMW parked in Forest Glade, Haverhill between 11pm on Saturday and 11am next day.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Andrew Green on (01284) 774100.

Arson attacks on wheelie bins

TWO wheelie bins were set alight in separate arson attacks.

In the first incident a bin was targeted in Constable Road, Haverhill, between 6.30pm and 7.10pm on Monday.

At around 8.30pm that evening, another bin in a parking bay in Hawthorn Road was set alight. Police are linking the two crimes and any information should be given to Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Vandals' mirror damage spree

VANDALS damaged the wing mirrors on six cars in three Haverhill streets. The cars were parked in Ixworth Road, Greenfields Way and Aldham Court and were damaged between 7.30pm on Friday and 10am on Saturday.

Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to Pc Cheryl Claydon at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Bike snatched from garden

A BOY'S silver BMX bike has been stolen from a back garden.

The bike was snatched from Sorrel Walk, Haverhill, between 7pm last Thursday and 1pm on Saturday.

Calls with any information about this incident should be made to Pc Andrew Green at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Petrol fill-up scam pair spared prison

TWO thrill-seeking friends have been spared prison sentences after stealing fuel worth £1,800 in a petrol station scam.

Seeking an adrenalin rush, car-loving pals Jason Farrant and Trevor Sewell drove to service stations across East Anglia to fill up before presenting a bank card which could not be authorised, Ipswich Crown Court heard last week.

The pair then took advantage of a procedure used by filling stations for drivers who are unable to pay, which saw staff take their names and addresses along with a promise that they would pay within seven days.

The men left false details, which meant they could not be traced, and made no effort to pay.

Over a two-year period, they committed dozens of offences, targeting Tesco 33 times and Sainsbury's on eight occasions.

The court was told how the

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

two men, who are both from Haverhill, had got an "adrenalin rush" from the offences until they were caught in April last year.

Sewell said he had also enjoyed driving Farrant's car knowing he had no licence and was not covered by insurance.

Ian James, mitigating for both defendants, said: "They have alleviated their boredom by driving out in Mr Farrant's car and allowed the local supermarkets to bear the cost of the fuel."

Both men pleaded guilty to three joint charges of fraud by false representation, while Farrant pleaded guilty to three further similar charges.

Farrant, 22, of Shardlow Close, also asked for 37 similar offences to be taken into consideration, while Sewell, also, 22, of Allington Walk, had 12 considered.

Farrant also pleaded guilty to two offences of permitting the use of a vehicle without insurance and two of permitting the driving of a vehicle not in accordance with a licence. Sewell pleaded guilty to two charges of driving without a licence and two of driving without insurance.

Patricia Doggett, prosecuting, said both men had made full admissions after they were arrested.

She added that when Farrant visited a filling station where he had previously failed to pay for fuel, it would be Sewell who went to the kiosk.

Sentencing them, Judge John Devaux ordered Farrant to complete 200 hours of unpaid community work and banned him from driving for 12 months.

Sewell was ordered to complete 150 hours of community service and banned from holding a driving licence for 12 months.

A further hearing will investigate how the men should pay back the money to the petrol stations.

CAB faces soaring inquiries over debt

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE number of people seeking advice for new financial problems at the Haverhill Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) has almost trebled in a year.

Staff say their workload has increased enormously as people flood through their doors with concerns about benefits, debt, employment and housing.

A comparison of the figures for the last three months of 2008 with the same period in 2007 shows overall enquiries on all matters has gone up by 44 per cent – but the startling increase of 269 per cent is from people with new financial or employment-related problems.

Brigitte Haig, the bureau manager, said: “We have had an enormous increase in clients coming to us for help. In the last quarter of last year we had a 269 per cent increase in clients with new problems.

“We find a large number of our clients who have lost their jobs are unfamiliar with the benefit system. We have people who are in danger of losing their houses because they have not provided all the evidence needed to claim benefits.

“We have had a 65 per cent increase in new benefits inquiries, for debt it was up 41 per cent, for employment we had an increase of 37 per cent and for housing 41 per cent. When you look at all enquiries together, we’ve had a 44 per cent increase.”

She has managed the office for more than a decade and said this is the worst situation she has encountered.

She said: “I took over the job when we were entering the last recession in the 1990s. We never expected that to happen again but this time it’s worse.”

The bureau is open from 11am to 2pm Monday and Friday and from 11am to 3pm Tuesday and Thursday for drop-in sessions. Appointments can be booked on (01440) 762194.

The CAB has 25 staff but new volunteers are always welcome. They can call (01440) 763946 to offer their help.

Dance event for Red Cross

YOUNG people are being encouraged to take part in a celebration of dance.

Dance for Life 2009 offers children in Suffolk the chance to perform a dance which in some way reflects the work of the British Red Cross.

The event is open to schools, dance schools and youth groups across the county and will be held in Woodbridge on March 28 and Bury St Edmunds on June 27.

It aims to overcome cultural, social and physical barriers.

Laura Deacon, Dance for Life organiser, said: “At the British Red Cross

we’re committed to promoting humanitarian values and Dance for Life allows us to get children and young people to explore these ideas in an engaging way.”

Thanks for donations to Christmas revellry

Sir, Captain Jonathan Wylie and members of the Haverhill Corps would like to thank members of the public for their generous giving on the occasion of their Christmas collection at Sainsbury's.

A total of £1,902.39 was collected, £300 of which was donated to our national Red Shield Appeal, the rest remaining at the corps to support our Christmas Day dinner and activities for those who would otherwise be alone. It will also fund our ongoing work throughout the year.

A very enjoyable time was had by all who came to the hall on Christmas Day.

Thanks is also expressed to the team of volunteers who gave up their time to make the day such a success. May God bless you all.

WHAT a good way for the Women's Institute to start a new year! A good attendance of members, eight husbands and one other visitor had come along to hear the speaker.

Before that part of the meeting, members were told of various activities planned for 2009, including 25th anniversary celebrations in April and a Holly and Mistletoe holiday to take place in November. The holiday will be in Scarborough and there was a great deal of interest shown.

The president introduced the speaker, Peter Jackson, from Scotsdales Garden Centre, who had come to tell the group how to create interesting gardens during the winter. After all his brilliant advice and helpful information there is no excuse for colourless gardens at any time of the year!

Next month's meeting promises to be just as fascinating but in a very different way, as the speaker will talk on Ghosts and Murders in Haverhill.

Search for family to start at library

PRACTICAL advice for anyone tracing their relatives will be on offer at a family history day at Haverhill library.

The event on Saturday will be run by the Haverhill group of the Suffolk Family History Society.

Bernard Amps will be starting the day at 11am, explaining how to "discover" your family history.

His advice will cover all counties, not just Suffolk, and is suitable for both beginners and those who have already started their research.

A practical session follows from around 1pm until 3.30pm, with Mr Amps offering further help and advice.

Resources will also be available for most parts of the country, including the church registers for Haverhill St Mary's, Sturmer and the Bumpsteads.

Entry is free but donations will be sought for the Haverhill Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Safety work begins

WORK began this week on a safety scheme to improve an accident-blighted junction on the A1307.

The scheme will see major changes made to the junction of the A1307 with Horseheath Green Road, widening the road as well as resurfacing it and providing a new pedestrian island with crossing facilities and new footways.

The junction has seen two fatal accidents in the last five years involving people crossing the road and a catalogue of accidents causing minor injuries to those involved.

New bus shelters and better street lighting will also be installed as part of the work.

Users of the stretch are being warned, however, that the work is likely to cause delays to their journeys.

Cllr Matt Bradney, cabinet member for transport, said:

"I have taken a personal interest in making sure we deliver on these schemes and do all that we can to reduce the number of accidents on this road. The road has been designated as a hazardous route and this scheme is part of an overall package of improvements on the A1307."

Day of action on the A1307

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynnews.co.uk

POLICE issued fines and confiscated cars in a day of action on the notorious A1307 Cambridge to Haverhill road.

Officers in cars and on motorbikes worked with the automatic number plate recognition vehicle in Monday's day of enforcement and education to target unsafe drivers.

The road has been the scene of a number of fatal accidents, with 28 people losing their lives over a 10-year period. The section between the Four Went Ways junction and the county boundary near Haverhill has been classified as a high casualty route.

Police are hoping the A1307 action days will have an effect on drivers' behaviour and reduce the carnage.

Insp Bob Turner said: "We have to do something to try to bring down the number of collisions and casualties. It's about enforcement and education.

"This road has such a bad record, with so many accidents in such a short stretch. We are targeting people who are not driving safely, people who are speeding, who are not wearing seatbelts or have no insurance.

"People with no insurance are more likely to be involved in crashes and we have seized vehicles without insurance."

Thirteen people lost their lives in accidents between the Four Went Ways junction and the county boundary between January 2003 and last May. A further 30 suffered serious injuries and there were 99 slight injuries.

Cambridgeshire County Council launched a four-week safety campaign in October in a bid to influence driver behaviour.

Signs on that stretch of the road now tell drivers it is a high casualty route, urging them to "slow down, take care, stay alive".

Insp Turner said speed was an influencing factor in fatal accidents on the A1307 but that drivers' lack of concentration was the most likely cause of deaths.

He said: "Fatal road accidents are horrendous. They affect families and the community. One mistake can cost a life."

The police issued 30 fixed penalty notices for a variety of offences such as failure to wear a seatbelt and driving while on a mobile phone.

Two cars were seized for having no insurance and four drivers were given notices for vehicle defects.

Search on for top community voices

EXCITEMENT is building in the search to find Cambridgeshire's best community newsletters.

More than 30 publications have been entered so far in the Village and Community Magazine Awards for the past year, but the deadline is looming.

The award scheme, backed by the Cambridge News, sister paper of the Weekly News, is hosted by Cambridge Building Society and is aimed at recognising the commitment of people involved in producing local magazines and newsletters, many of whom are volunteers working in their own time.

There are two categories – small community and large community.

The winning magazine in each category will receive a £500 cash prize and a trophy, and will be able to use the award scheme logo in their magazine.

A second prize of £250 will go to each runner-up.

Along with highly-commended certificates, there are also a number of special awards including: Most Improved Magazine, Most Promising Newcomer and a Judges' Special Award.

Julie Potter, a marketing assistant for the society, said: "For all the awards, the judges will look at features such as front cover design, distribution, editorial quality, business commitment, community content, presentation and how much useful local information they contain."

Entry forms are still available on the society website, on www.cambridgebs.co.uk and from all its branches.

The closing date for competition entries is January 31.

The awards will be presented at a glittering evening event in March.

'Grim picture' in charity's toll of child abuse victims

Rainforest appeal bears fruit for apes

A CITY bid to save some of the world's most endangered rainforest has been hailed a huge success.

The Cambridge Rainforest Appeal was launched by aerospace firm Marshall of Cambridge only a few weeks ago, with the backing of Sir David Attenborough. The aim was to raise £200,000 for the charity of which Sir David is patron, the World Land Trust, which buys up threatened land around the world to safeguard wildlife – and the money has now already been collected.

The trust will use it to buy land in Borneo, to secure the future of more than 600 orangutans. Michael Marshall, the appeal's chairman, said: "I am proud to be associated with such an important appeal on behalf of the world's biodiversity and contributing so significantly to the avoidance of carbon emissions which the burning of forests would cause." Sir David said: "Every bit of rainforest lost in Borneo is less space for orangutans to survive."

ALMOST 200 children were the victims of sexual offences in Cambridgeshire last year.

The figures were obtained as part of a national investigation by the NSPCC.

The statistics, released under the Freedom of Information Act, show there were 189 victims under the age of 18 in the county.

Cambridgeshire police did not supply a breakdown of how old the children were at the time of the offences.

Phillip Noyes, NSPCC director of public policy, said: "These shocking figures reveal just how young many of the reported victims of sex abuse are, with even one-year-olds being at risk, although the highest numbers of offences were against children in their early teens."

"It's a grim picture but this is only a snapshot, as our research indicates there are many more abused children whose suffering never comes to light."

In total, there were 20,758 alleged sex crimes involving under-18s reported to officers in England and Wales in 2008.

The force which reported the most offences was the Metropolitan Police, which had worked on the cases of 3,336 victims – including eight who were just one year old.

Golf pro chips in with an easy idea

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A GOLF professional from Haverhill is set to market an invention to improve players' putting at the largest golf show in the world.

Stuart Smith, the teaching professional at Heydon Grange Golf and Country Club, near Royston, started work five years ago to develop golf training aids to enhance the way he taught and the way his pupils learnt.

Frustrated by the limitations of traditional teaching methods, Stuart set about designing training products himself.

After an injection of cash from local investors, Stuart set up the Easy Way Golf Company and put the first of his products – the Putt Easy – into production.

The Putt Easy is designed to teach players of all abilities how to make the perfect connection on each and every putt. It teaches players how to rise through the stroke to create topspin, giving control over speed and direction.

The product, which sells for £40, has generated a lot of interest in the UK golf market and Stuart will launch it next week at the prestigious PGA merchandise show in Orlando, Florida.

■ TAKING IT ACROSS THE POND ... golf pro Stuart Smith will be showing off his Putt Easy invention at next week's prestigious PGA merchandise showcase in the US. CP.

More than 40,000 industry professionals from 75 countries are expected to converge at the 56th annual show, which is renowned for combining golf tradition with the latest innovations.

Stuart said: "I still find it hard to believe that something I started tinkering with to help me do my job better has gone this far so fast."

"To see the Putt Easy produced and sold in the UK was fantastic but now we're taking it to the US, I sometimes have to pinch myself."

And he is looking to the future with two new products to help players from tee to green which will be launched in 2009 – the Drive Easy and the Swing Easy.

Stuart said: "Now we've seen the Putt Easy do so well we're really excited about the next two products."

"I've tried to design something for each part of the golf game with driving coming next, then the swing and sometime next year I hope to have the Chip Easy ready to go."

"I've tested out the Drive Easy prototypes with some of the people I teach at Heydon Grange and they've seen an immediate improvement."

Easy Way Golf has donated five Putt Easy aids to the charity day at Haverhill Snooker and Bowl on Sunday, where the highest five putting scorers will all win one.

Vehicles targeted by rampaging vandals

THIEVES went on a crime spree and stole sat navs and tools from vehicles in Haverhill.

They struck at Baines Coney, Brybank Road, Pearmain Walk, Horsham Close, Grenadier Road, Girtton Road and Henderson Close between 11.30am on Wednesday, January 14, and 9am the following day.

The offenders broke into five vehicles by smashing windows and stole items including sat navs and tools. Two cars were damaged but not entered and an unlocked car was entered but nothing was stolen from within. A van had a lock forced and a drill battery was stolen.

Owners are reminded to keep their vehicles secure at all times and to remove items of value while unattended, including their accessories.

Anyone with information about these incidents should call Pc Matthew Dale at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Compound break-in THIEVES broke into a secure compound and stole two trailers. Offenders struck at Moon Hall Lane, Haverhill, between 2pm on Monday, January 12, and 10am on Wednesday, January 14. They stole a yellow JCB trailer and a steel Indispension trailer.

In a separate incident, more than four tonnes of steel and copper piping were stolen from a yard in Stour Valley Road, Haverhill between 2.30pm on Saturday and 7.15am on Monday.

Calls in relation to both incidents should be made to Pc Sarah Reavill at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Trailer stolen

THIEVES made off with a trailer which had been left locked outside a house.

The Ifor Williams twin-axle trailer was stolen in Wickhambrook between noon on Tuesday, January 13, and 3.55pm on Thursday, January 15. A blue Volvo estate was seen to leave the area at speed.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Philip Scarfe on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Generous donation

THE Salvation Army's Haverhill Corps has thanked everyone who contributed to its Christmas collection at the town's Sainsbury's store.

A total of £1,902 was raised, of which £300 went to the National Red Shield Appeal.

Some funds helped towards the cost of the Christmas Day dinner for those who would otherwise be alone. The remainder will fund ongoing work throughout the year.

Crews fight van fire

FIREFIGHTERS were called to a van on fire.

The incident happened just after 7.30am on Thursday, January 15, in Wickhambrook. One crew from Wickhambrook fire station and one from Bury arrived to find the van well alight on the side of Hargrave Road.

The fire was extinguished by 8.10am.

Jobs to go at housing group

FIFTEEN people are to lose their jobs at a housing association that owns almost 6,000 homes in the region.

Havebury Housing Partnership, set up to serve the housing needs of people in West Suffolk and the Cambridge sub-region, has given formal notification of the job losses at the end of a period of consultation with employees and the unions.

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

There are 11 compulsory redundancies and four voluntary redundancies. Ten posts will be made redundant on March 31 with the other five going on September 30.

Steve Cook, chief executive (pictured left), said: "Havebury last year decided it needed to reshape the business to make sure it is fit for the future. We have worked closely with both our employees and the unions on a range of options to minimise the impact on individual employees.

"Redundancies are very regrettable but we will be providing all the support we can to help those leaving to find new jobs."

Havebury was formed in 2001 to take ownership of the housing stock of St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Optimism grows for house sales

HOUSE sales in the eastern region could pick up in the next three months, according to a chartered surveyors' organisation.

The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) said its members reported "a slight increase in transactions" over the past three months, bucking the national trend, which has seen sales plummet to an all-time low.

The RICS said: "The number of transactions grew slightly in the East of England in December, despite the run-up to Christmas traditionally being a quiet period."

"East of England chartered surveyors report that they expect sales to increase over the next three months."

■ ENCOURAGING . . . John Pocock.

The increase in interest reflects both the drop in asking prices and recent cuts in interest rates."

David Potter, operations director for the region, said: "Buyer interest in the region has picked up slightly but without mortgage finance, the housing market will not see any marked improvement, and transaction levels will continue to remain very low."

"First-time buyers and owner-occupiers are now stuck in a market which does not fulfil their aspirations."

"The Government must act now to ensure that order is restored to the housing market."

"A first step would be for it to provide guarantees for the new issuance of residential mortgage-backed securities."

John Pocock, of Pocock and Shaw estate agents in Cambridge, said: "The impression we get is that more people than expected are starting to think about coming into the housing market, and the low interest rates are encouraging investors to purchase."

Police have 58,000 on DNA database

BY Chris Haveragel

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CAMBRIDGESHIRE police have stored nearly 60,000 profiles on the national DNA database – equivalent to one in every 10 people in the county.

The database includes the genetic details of 7,500 children who were arrested in the county. Some of the children are as young as 10.

Many of the people whose records are included in the figures, released to the Weekly News under Freedom of Information Act powers, have never been convicted of a crime.

Civil liberties campaigners – including Cambridge MP David Howarth – called for the ever-growing database to be scaled back.

But the Cambridgeshire force said it played a key role in fighting crime.

Currently police take DNA samples from anyone arrested in the county on suspicion of committing a recordable crime.

While the profiles of 4.3 million people are stored by police forces nationwide, last month European judges ruled that retention of the genetic details of 857,000 innocent citizens was unlawful.

The Government has until March to comply with the judgment.

Cambridgeshire police have placed 58,000 profiles on the database, including 162 children aged 10 and 355 aged 11 – although some profiles may be duplicates. Official estimates put the county's population at 597,000.

Andrew Watson, co-ordinator of the Cambridge NO2ID campaign, said: "It is a fundamental right that each of us should be able to continue our lives unmolested by the state unless the state has a good reason."

"The database stigmatises people."

David Howarth said the DNA database was a useful but "far from perfect" crime-fighting tool, warning that around 500,000 profiles on the register were incorrect and that the growth of the database had not increased detection rates.

He said: "It is important to confine the permanent database to people convicted of crimes, with perhaps the addition for a specific period of time of those accused of serious crimes."

A Cambridgeshire police spokeswoman said the force followed national guidelines.

She added: "We get about 50 DNA matches a month. However, officers look for supporting evidence before bringing charges."

Of the surrounding forces, Essex police had loaded the highest number of profiles, 136,000, onto the system.

Bedfordshire stored 49,000 and Hertfordshire had included 80,000, compared with Suffolk's figure of 51,000.

A Home Office spokeswoman said the database had "revolutionised the way the police can protect the public through identifying offenders and securing more convictions".

Snap up prizes in gallery's big draw

A PHOTOGRAPHIC studio and art gallery business is celebrating its first year of trading at its current premises with a celebratory free draw offering prizes worth £500. Photographer David Doughty, who runs The Gallery at Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, and Gary Theobald, who runs the art gallery on the floor above it, have put up a range of prizes.

There are five prizes up for grabs, ranging from art supplies, vouchers for a hand-drawn portrait, photo albums, easels and illuminated photo frames. All customers have to do is pop in between Monday and Saturday, February 7, to register for the free draw. Sam McGlue, CB9 Factor winner, will draw the winning tickets.

■ PICTURE PERFECT . . . Gary Theobald and David Doughty, right, from The Gallery, will be celebrating one year in business at their current premises with a free prize draw. CP

The gallery will also donate 10 per cent of sales of art materials and poster art ranges during that time to the Haverhill Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal. The appeal aims to raise £40,000 to pay for in-home hospice services for patients in and around Haverhill, saving them the trip to the hospice itself in Bury St Edmunds. It has already raised more than £30,000.

Site attacking PCSO dumped

BY Chris Havergal

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

POLICE have had a Facebook page shut down after hundreds of angry motorists left messages on the site about a former Haverhill police officer.

John Woodgate handed out more than 10,000 parking tickets in the space of 10 years as a traffic warden in the town.

He retrained as a police community support officer and later moved to Sudbury, where he began dishing out tickets again.

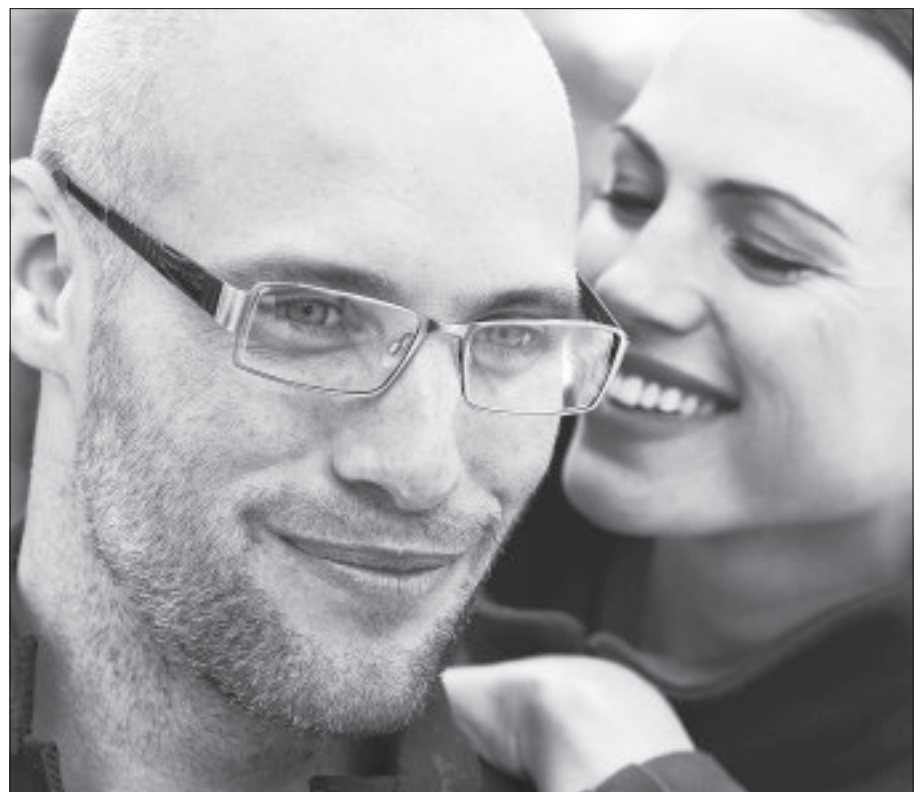

Locals claim 60-year-old Mr Woodgate is too officious and is driving shoppers away from the town. They set up a page on the social networking site dedicated to him.

Within a couple of weeks more than 1,000 people had signed up, but some of the comments were so rude that Suffolk police asked Facebook to shut down the page.

A spokesman for the website said the site had been removed because it contained "hateful, threatening and obscene" criticism of Mr Woodgate.

He added: "Our policy is to remove groups that attack an individual or group."

Who's the best band?

THE doors have been thrown open once again for entries to the Cambridge Band competition later this year.

After four heats at the Soul Tree in April and a grand final at the Corn Exchange in May, the band who is finally picked by the panel of local record industry insiders, DJs and music journalists will win a prize which includes £500 cash, time in a professional recording studio, a slot on the main stage at the Big Day Out event on Parker's Piece in the summer and much more.

The deadline for bands to send in their demos to be considered for the shortlist is February 20. Application forms are available through the Corn Exchange website at www.cornex.co.uk or ring (01223) 457555 to get one in the post. All entries should include a current CD of the band's best two or three songs, a photo and band biography.

Rare show

FRANKIE Stubbs, front man of Sunderland punk heroes Leatherface, will be playing a rare acoustic gig at the Portland Arms in Cambridge on Saturday. The evening will also feature an acoustic set from Duncan Redmonds, of comedy punkers Snuff. Tickets are £5 in advance from (01223) 357268 or £6 on the door. The evening kicks off at 7pm.

Singers lend their voice to mark new era

TICKETS for Barack Obama's inauguration ceremony may have been a little tricky to come by, but there's another chance for an American musical celebration in Cambridge tomorrow. The VocalEssence Ensemble Singers will be performing a selection of some of the best choral music from across the pond at King's College Chapel, where organisers hope it will be a chance for Cambridge audiences to mark the presidential inauguration week. The 32-strong chorus hails from Minnesota and is currently touring to celebrate its 40th anniversary season. The concert will feature a programme of American folk and gospel music as well as classic works by Copland and Bernstein, and two pieces by contemporary composer

Eric Whitacre. There will also be a selection of European pieces including works by Messiaen and Richard Rodney Bennett. The concert starts at 7.30pm and tickets are £5-£20. To book call (01223) 357851.

Big names line up for run at Arts Theatre

By Nik Shelton

CAMBRIDGE Arts Theatre's new season promises some big names, some much-loved classic plays and some exciting new writing.

It kicks off with a spooky turn from Arts Theatre regular Liza Goddard in the first week of February. Life and Beth is the latest play from one of the country's best-loved scribes, Alan Ayckbourn, and sees Goddard play a recently widowed woman who has to contend with visits not just from her troublesome family but also from a supernatural guest.

The university's Gilbert and Sullivan Society returns with another classic operetta later in the month and this time round they've chosen to tackle Iolanthe, which follows the unpredictable antics of amorous shepherds, mischievous fairies and the inhabitants of the House of Lords.

Renowned theatre director and Royal Shakespeare Company founder Peter Hall is at the helm for a production of the George Feydeau farce Where There's a Will, which arrives for a week's run

■ TOP TALENT... Peter Egan and Belinda Lang star in A Song at Twilight, which comes to the Arts Theatre in April. CP

before the biggest star of the season arrives at the end of February. Withnail and I actor Richard E Grant will be bringing the hit West End play, God of Carnage, to Cambridge before it heads back to London. The play, by Yasmina Reza, was a critical and popular success story last year when Ralph Fiennes took the lead role at the Geilgud Theatre and follows the explosive meeting of two sets of parents who gather to discuss the violent behaviour of their children.

The Marlowe Society presents the Bard's Romeo and Juliet in the first week of March. The play is directed by much-talked about Charlotte Westenra, who recently won acclaim for her production of Kiss of the Spiderwoman.

March continues with a star studded version of the modern musical classic, The Little Shop of Horrors.

A touring production from the National Theatre is always a highlight of the stage calendar for Cambridge theatre lovers so tickets for David Hare's new play, Gethsemane, will be hot property when it opens at the Arts on March 17.

Noel Coward fans are in for a treat as April starts with a new version of the romantic classic Brief Encounter, followed a fortnight later with Coward's witty character study, A Song At Twilight, which pits Peter Egan and Belinda Lang against each other in a battle of wits.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

Aygo holds value best

THE TOYOTA Aygo was Britain's slowest depreciating car in 2008, according to research from parkers.co.uk.

In its annual depreciation report, Parker's compared last January's new prices with what an owner could expect to get if they sold privately now. A buyer who got their hands on an Toyota Aygo last year will now have lost just £1515 over 12 months – the equivalent of just £4 per day.

This year's report is more important than ever as car buyers tighten their belts and seek-out cars that will save them money.

The Fiat 500 makes its appearance in the top 10 – and it's a strong one. The mix of retro-inspired looks and low running costs has made it the right car at the right time. It's been a hit with buyers and made it one of 2008's must-have cars. It even finished ahead of the MINI, which has been a star performer for residual values since 2001.

All the cars in this year's top 10 have one thing in common: they're all small. Increased demand from buyers trading down to smaller, more economical cars has pushed up prices – something that's set to continue as recession bites. The combined loss of the top 10 is around £100 less than it was in 2007.

At the foot of the table the buyers who have lost a small fortune are those that started out with a large one. The Maybach continues to lose eye-watering sums in the first year of ownership, while the owners of most luxury cars need to be prepared to lose a substantial sum in their first year of ownership.

Kieren Puffett, editor of parkers.co.uk said: "The popularity of small cars has risen steadily over the past five year, but they're now really starting to strike a chord with buyers. With low road tax, and great fuel economy, many families are turning to them to bring down household costs. As a result demand has never been stronger for the very best small cars and values remain strong as a result."

Region's cars 'are cleanest'

WINDSCREEN expert Autoglass is urging drivers in Bristol to make a new year's resolution to follow Cambridge's example to keep their cars cleaner, as the results of a new poll show millions of mucky motors are on Britain's roads.

Dirty cars can result in a hazardous journey, as visibility can be greatly reduced. According to the survey of the UK's largest towns and cities, the UK's dirtiest cars are to be found in Bristol but it was Cambridge's drivers that came top of the clean league.

The poll reveals one in five drivers (20 per cent) wait up to six months before cleaning the inside of their vehicles. Women are the worst culprits with more than one in 10 (12 per cent) female drivers admitting to not cleaning the car interior for up to a year (compared to nine per cent of men).

A dirty windscreen can cause major visibility problems for the driver. Dirt and grime on the interior of the screen can cause a particular nuisance in bright sunlight or when driving in the dark. When it comes to the exterior, a mucky windscreen and side windows will also reduce what the driver can see as wipers will only clear some of the dirt away.

Autoglass is the UK's leading vehicle glass repair and replacement service.

Take Note of Nissan's new micro-MPV

THE new Nissan Note is now on sale at Marshall Nissan on the Newmarket Road.

The innovative and space-efficient compact car has had subtle changes made to the exterior, with a new design to the front grille, bumper and headlights, giving a more premium and streamlined appearance.

Two new alloy wheel designs in 15-inch and 16-inch are available on the Acenta and Tekna models and a stunning new exterior colour called Safari Gold is now available.

The new Note is also the first vehicle in the Nissan range to feature Nissan Connect. An innovative and user-friendly piece of technology, Nissan Connect provides the driver with an integrated satellite navigation system, music from built-in CD and radio, and connectivity for an iPod, MP3 and Bluetooth phone.

Improvements have also been made to the Note's suspension to enhance ride comfort, while improving responsiveness and ensuring maximum driving enjoyment.

Revisions to the engine and gearbox mean the micro-MPV now has lower CO2 emissions.

Said David Arrowsmith, dealer

■ THE NEW NOTE... Nissan's micro-MPV is now on sale.

principal at Marshall Nissan: "The new Note is surprisingly spacious for a compact car whilst still delivering a stylish uncompromising drive, ideal for life in the city. With the original Note receiving accolades such as 'Best Supermini MPV' from Auto Express magazine for three years in a row, we are sure the new Note will be just as successful." Part of the Marshall Nissan showroom is currently being turned into a high-performance centre, due to open on March 1, with the eagerly awaited GT-R due to arrive in April. For more information about the range or to arrange a test drive, phone (01223) 377300.

Show launches ignite future hopes

■ THE BLUESPORT... Volkswagen headturner.

■ THE CHEVY SPARK... is on its way to UK - at some point.

ALL signs of pessimism in the global motoring industry were pushed firmly into the background as the North American International Auto Show opened its doors in Detroit last week, with both new models and concepts lifting the mood.

Admittedly, there was a major nod to austerity, with many makers taking slimmed-down stand space, and dispensing with the luxury of laser pyrotechnics and other expenses. But there was no lack of designer wheels, or new-model news, particularly from US brands.

Chevrolet says its new entry in the competitive supermini sector, the Spark, will arrive in the UK early in 2010 and, importantly for the land of the large limo, it will also form part of the marque's North American range.

Developed mostly in Europe, the Spark will be produced in Korea. Chevrolet's other showstopper was the new Orlando seven-seater MPV, with rugged SUV-style looks.

Kia brought some welcome sunshine to midwinter Detroit with the unveiling of its Soulster drop-top concept, a variation of the Kia Soul urban crossover.

The front-drive Soulster, a compact, chunky SUV with the look of a pick-up truck, can be powered by either 1.6 or 2.0-litre petrol engines, or a 1.6-litre turbo-diesel unit.

Volkswagen's new mid-engined, rear-wheel drive concept roadster attracted much attention in North America, another design study that was presented with no immediate news of production possibilities.

Named Concept BlueSport to define its environmental and sporting aspirations, the two-seater roadster employs a mid-mounted 2.0-litre common-rail diesel engine, with a lightweight chassis, to enhance sharp dynamics. The car can accelerate from standstill to 62mph in 6.6 seconds, with a top speed of 140mph.

Ford was pushing its plans for alternative-power cars, with chairman Bill Ford announcing hybrid, plug-in hybrid, and battery-electric cars. The Blue Oval firm will launch at least four high-mileage battery-electric vehicles by 2012.

Audi debuted a new Sportback concept, one that shares the dimensions of the existing A6 saloon, and which is driven by a new 47mpg-plus 3.0-litre turbo-diesel engine.

And, still at the premium end of the market, Lexus revealed its HS 250h (above), the world's first dedicated luxury hybrid vehicle. The 2.4-litre HS 250h (pictured above), on sale in the US later this year, will be Lexus' fourth hybrid and the most fuel-efficient vehicle in its line-up.

It will also be the first Lexus to utilise carbon-neutral plastic materials in the car's futuristic cockpit.

The firm is pushing its hybrid technology after its research revealed that more than 60 per cent of first-time luxury car buyers would consider a hybrid.

The next generation Toyota Prius was also unveiled in Detroit.

Toyota has promised even more frugal motoring for the best-selling hybrid.

The Prius retains a 1.8-litre petrol with an electric motor with either or both able to power the car along.

The drivetrain has seen improvements in weight and efficiency and there have been reductions in weight and improvement in aerodynamics in general.

The new Prius is expected to go on sale this summer.

So, with few manufacturers in Detroit expanding on the economic crisis, the message was clear - many expect to weather the current tough trading conditions and come out the other side with the kind of cars that will consolidate their future.

CASTLE HILL COMMUNITY MIDDLE SCHOOL
Acting Headteacher: Ms M Vigar BEd (Hons) NPQH

"Working Together Aiming High"

Learning Support Technician

32.5 hours per week/39 weeks per year (term time only)
Salary: Grade 3 point 12

This post offers an exciting career opportunity and the chance to make a real difference.

At Castle Hill we aim to cater for the learning needs of all our students. Our Learning Support Technicians provide invaluable additional support within curriculum teams, tailoring content of lessons for students with specific learning styles and individual special education needs. This post involves working directly with students in class, small groups or on a one to one basis, supporting staff to provide appropriate opportunities for all pupils. No previous experience of working in a school is necessary, but a genuine interest and enthusiasm for working with young people is essential.

Castle Hill Community Middle School was recently described by inspectors as having calm classrooms - a school where relationships are good and pupils respond well to teachers. Set on the Suffolk/Cambridge/Essex borders with easy access to London, Castle Hill provides a safe and secure environment for children to grow and flourish.

Castle Hill is working in close federation with Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College.

Closing date: Monday 2nd February 2009

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

GRAMPIAN Gunners bowed out of the Suffolk U15 County Cup on Sunday, beaten 2-1 away in the quarter-finals by a strong East Bergholt side.

The home side, who play in the Eastern Junior Alliance, a league above the Gunners, took the lead in the 21st minute.

Grampian's equaliser came in the 31st minute when Halls smashed home from 20 yards following Howe's long ball.

Soon afterwards, Grampian's Guyon headed wide of a gaping goal, before the home side then went on to regain their lead on the stroke of half time.

The second half was a real battle, with Halls, Bailey, Guyon and Palazon going close for Gunners.

■ WEST WRATTING U12 triumphed 9-1 away to Priory Parkside in their Cambs Colts League, Division 12D match.

Both sides tried very hard to play football on a poor pitch, as Wratting applied pressure on the Priory defence. Goals eventually came from Lambert (4), Ankers, Gedny, Scotton, man-of-the-match Cooper and Foster.

■ WITHERSFIELD YOUTH U12 triumphed 4-3 in a thriller when they travelled to Ely Crusaders in the third round of the Cambs Colts League Cup.

Despite their squad being down to down to 10 men, Withersfield scored in the first minute.

Ely came back with three goals to leave Withersfield trailing 3-1 for much of the game.

Plucky Gunners are shown the county cup exit

However, Withersfield's 10 men showed great character and commitment to come back with three late strikes.

Liam Santry, Murray Barker and Mitchel Burr, who nabbed the winner, were among the scorers.

■ GRAMPIAN GUNNERS U11 went down 2-1 to their NST Strikers A opponents in Division 11A of the Cambs Mini League.

Jamie Lingard almost scored for Gunners in the opening minute after dancing past three defenders before shooting wide.

Toby Daly's accurate cross picked out Mitchell Forshaw, who smashed home from the edge of the box to give Grampian the lead.

The NST goalkeeper produced several fine saves, while his opposite number Jack Davis was also outstanding and unlucky to concede just before the break as he got a hand to a powerful shot that just crept in to level the scores.

In the second half, NST took the lead early on, a great run finishing with a fierce shot.

From then on, Grampian had their chances, but could not find an equaliser.

■ WEST WRATTING U11 rattled in 18 without reply in the Cambs Mini League Knockout Cup, first-round tie with Stretham Sporting B.

Stretham started brightly, but, once Wratting got into their stride, goals came out at regular intervals.

Leyton George scored six, Charlie Ellam and Charlie Ripp hit hat-tricks, Mo Horsley and Liam Gibbs a brace each, while Ellis Wiffen and man-of-the-match Matt Carpenter grabbed one each.

Although the goals were pleasing, the best thing for Wratting was the way all of the team played the game with quick, neat passes, using the whole of the pitch to find space.

■ GRAMPIAN GUNNERS U10 B went down 4-2 at home to NST Strikers in their Cambs Mini League, Division 10B fixture.

Gunners started brightly, but could not find the net.

NST defended well and had good chances on the break before Gunners scored when a cross by Ashley Gosling was touched in by James Austin.

NST began the second half well, scoring shortly after the restart.

This boosted their confidence and, with Ollie Packman running the game and helping himself to a hat-trick, Grampian were left stunned.

James Sams pulled one back for Gunners late on.

Schulz and Roper get among goals

HAVERHILL Rovers U14 Girls played host to Waterbeach and ran out 9-1 winners.

Within three minutes of the start, Katie Schulz's powerful shot put Rovers ahead, only for Waterbeach to quickly equalise.

This kick-started Rovers and, within a few minutes, Stacey Roper scored to make it 2-1. Waterbeach had a couple of chances to equalise, but found Charlotte Coatham in good form, saving two one-on-ones. Schulz and Roper added another two goals and, five minutes before half time, a cross from the right by Schulz found Jessica Clay for a simple tap-in to make it 5-1.

The second half was all Haverhill with their midfield of Chloe Ellis, Rebecca Ross, Molly McFall and Katy Kingbury in control.

The defence of Amy Hull, Alisha Jenkins, Rachel Jeffs and Sarah Lister stopped any attacks mounted by Waterbeach.

Roper scored two more to bring her tally to four in the game. This was followed by an own goal before Kama Jenkins lobbed the keeper from the edge of the area to make the final score 9-1.

Angels take Punch-ing

DELAWARE Feather Angels were simply outclassed by Division Five high-flyers Suffolk Punch.

Though defending resolutely for the first 20 minutes, Delaware soon began to see gaps appearing at the back and went in at half time 5-0 down.

Four further goals followed in the second half to result in Delaware

YOUTH RUGBY

Haverhill move to new level

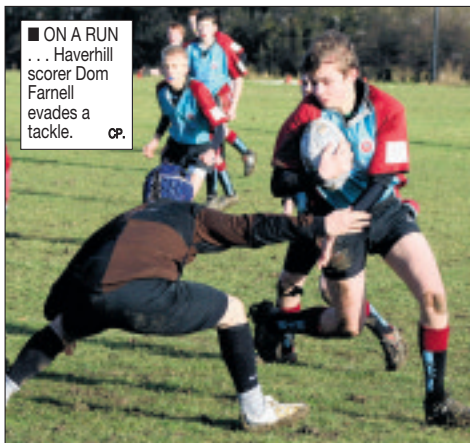

HAVERHILL U15 gave as good as they got before going down 12-5 against a strong and physical Witham on Sunday.

Witham scoring their first try on five minutes after breaking through three tackles to score.

Another try followed on 15 minutes, putting them 12 points ahead.

Haverhill raised their commitment, matching their opponents and never getting intimidated when they had possession, either in the forward or back play.

The half-time talk from coaches Jury and Lester inspired Haverhill to up their work-rate even more and, within three minutes of the re-start they had been held up in goal. A crunching tackle by Gareth Lester then prevented Witham from getting out of their 22 and finally, from a scrum, Dom Farnell sprung from the rear to score. Both sides had their chances and, as the game went on, Haverhill looked as if they may just earn a draw as their tackles were low and positive. They produced 100 per cent commitment, solid forward play and their backs defended and attacked as a unit. At the final whistle, Haverhill knew that, despite losing, they had moved to a new level in their game.

Super Charlie leads Rovers to cup victory

A MATCH-WINNING performance from Charlie Holmes saw Rovers progress to the semi-finals of the KO Cup.

All 16 Haverhill players worked effortlessly to overcome a strong Witchford team, who are two leagues and nearly 30 places above them in the C division and the top team in cup competitions.

A resilient defensive display from Dom Pagram, Max Rice, Curtis Doughty and Luke Greenaway, with Danny Trinder covering superbly in front, saw off most attacks. While the attacks from Jack Marsh, Holmes, Jake Fawcett, Alex Naggy and Chris Ball always looked threatening, and all five substitutes played superbly well to contribute to this cup win. They were Scott Schuter, Billy Stevens, Rob Stevenson, Jamie Firman, David Jackowski. Holmes ran the show, tirelessly winning everything and unselfishly created most of Rovers' chances. Haverhill were 1-0 down at half time due to their only lapse in concentration when the back four got caught flat, but Rovers were up for the battle and soon after the restart levelled the score through Ball, assisted by Holmes.

The teams were fairly evenly matched throughout the game, but Rovers' soaked up the pressure in the last 10 minutes and throughout the 20 minutes of extra time, during which Witchford had several chances superbly saved by Tom Webster. In the last minute, Witchford hit the crossbar, but luck was shining down as Rovers blasted their way into the semis without missing a penalty in the shootout, while Webster saved two.

RUGBY UNION

McDonagh nips in for the decider

Haverhill 17 Swaffham 14

EASTERN COUNTIES LEAGUE, DIVISION TWO

KIERON McDonagh's interception try helped clinch a narrow victory for Haverhill over Swaffham in Eastern Counties Two on Saturday.

The visitors started the stronger and pegged Haverhill back in their own 22 for the first half-hour, but they could not make the most of two penalty opportunities.

An infringement by Swaffham led to Jake Plumridge kicking three points to put the hosts in front at the break.

■ ADAM HUNT... scored try.

After half time, Plumridge made a break from 50m out and put in Adam Hunt to touch down, with Plumridge converting.

Swaffham upped the pressure on the Haverhill line, but blindside flanker McDonagh intercepted a pass and raced away to score beneath the posts, and Plumridge added the extra two points.

An error allowed the visitors to get back in the game with a converted try, and then a slick move saw them reduce the deficit to three points with 15 minutes remaining. But despite a frantic finish, Haverhill stayed in control.

Skipper Paul Bergin said: "Swaffham started very strong and pinned us down in the 22 and missed two penalties, which was a good let-off for us.

"It was end to end for the last 20 minutes. We made it hard work for ourselves. It was a good win and we had the crowd a bit panicked at phases.

"We knew who their stronger runners were and we changed things around in our back row to counter that."

Westcott goals deliver points

HAVERHILL Rovers recorded their first win in six league games thanks to two goals from Martin Westcott. They even managed to survive the late dismissal of Neil Cogger.

Battling to pull away from the foot of the table, Rovers made a lively start at Hamlet Croft with Westcott and Cogger going close.

Marcus Hunt had a header cleared off the line, and Daniel Marshall had a shot blocked as the home side dominated.

They broke the deadlock in the 48th minute when Cogger's cut-back was parried by Felixstowe keeper Ben Nower and Westcott hooked home.

minute, but the game ignited eight minutes from time when Cogger was dismissed. Rovers stretched further ahead when Jamie Challis found Westcott, who cut inside from the wing before firing in.

Andrew Claydon scored a late consolation for Felixstowe.

■ Rovers have been given a significant boost in their battle against relegation with the withdrawal of Whitton United from the league.

Their exit means their playing record has been expunged and the number of teams set to go down at the end of the season reduced from three to two.

The news is a major boost to bottom club Rovers, who drew 3-3 in their only league match against Whitton – but second-from-bottom Norwich United won their encounter, meaning Rovers gain two points on their relegation rivals.

Haverhill boss Peter Betts said: "Without even playing a game we've gained two points on Norwich. It's a kick up the backside for the players as our chances of staying up have just increased. We'd still be confident that we can get out of it, but this is a lift for us."

Rovers have a double dose of league action during the coming week. On Saturday, they travel to a Wivenhoe side who are currently in free-fall, while, on Tuesday, they make the trip to take on high-flying Mildenhall Town.
